Dear Mr. McCone:

STAT

It is a pleasure to write in behalf of [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] was certified for appointment as an Accountant, GS-12 with your organization in November, 1957, however declined the appointment at that time.

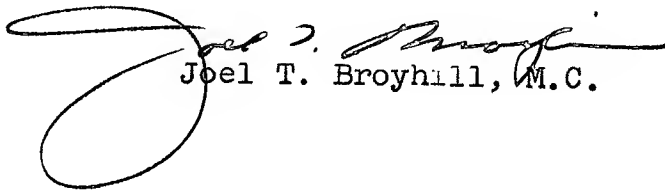

STAT

[REDACTED] has reapplied on January 29, 1962 for the same position and I would like to express my personal interest in him at this time. He has been exceptionally highly recommended to me as an expert in his field, and is unusually well regarded by former employers and co-workers.

I would be grateful if you would review his application and expedite your action in this matter. Any consideration you may be able to render in his behalf will be deeply appreciated as I am sure he would prove an outstanding employee and an asset to your agency and to the Federal Government if granted the opportunity.

Thanking you and with best wishes, I am

Sincerely,

Joel T. Broyhill, M.C.

Remarks:

[] was fully cleared for appointment as Auditor, GS-12, in October 1957. He declined this appointment when he learned that he might be assigned overseas within a year stating that he had a three-year-old child whom he would not want to leave for a two-year tour abroad. His file was en route to the Audit Staff for consideration when Mr. Broyhill's letter was received.
